

PRESS RELEASE

MASSIMO PUGLIESE HAS BEEN AWARDED WITH “LE FONTI” PRIZE AT ITALIAN STOCK EXCHANGE

MILAN – In the prestigious location of Palazzo Mezzanotti in Milan, historical office of the Italian stock Exchange, took place on Friday evening, the third edition of the International Prize “Le Fonti” with the High Quality Standards of European Commission as well as with the institutional organizers of MILAN EXPO 2015.

In the presence of 50 international businessmen and the representatives of the main media, such as Harvard Business Review and many other radio-television headings, Massimo Pugliese has been awarded for his activity carried out in the field of renewable energies during a time of eight months (October 2012-May 2013) with the Italian company EL.ITAL..

“To his far-sighted approach towards renewable energies, in particular to the solar market, as well as to his consolidate leadership in the electronic field (EMS). Thanks to the constant technological improvements, he has been able to offer products and services of high quality”- this is the motivation for the prize given to Massimo Pugliese.

This prize represents for Massimo Pugliese and for the business "Made in Irpinia" a great recognition, both national and international, as the prize has been created in order to identify and select the professional, financial and industrial excellences that have exemplary reacted to the financial crisis.

The importance and the relevance of the Prize is highlighted by the fact that the selection has been committed to Family Office's editorial staff as well as to its editorial and scientific committee, to the Research Centre of Financial, Juridical and Social Studies, to the Institute of Science and Culture, to Assofondazioni, International Alternative Investment Review and the international portal www.iaireview.org. Particular support to the initiative has been given by Club Family Office, composed of Italian business well- established in the territory.

Massimo Pugliese's awarded taken place in Milan at Palazzo Mezzanotti, historical office of the Italian Stock Exchange, where on Friday evening, occurred the third edition of the International Prize “Le Fonti”.
